T-centralen - Central Station - Arlanda Airport Express Train - City Terminal

T-centralen is Stockholm's main subway station and together with the Central Station and City Terminal form the hub in Stockholm's public transport system.

T-centralen is connected to the Central Station where all long-distance and commuter trains stop and where Arlanda Express, the train from the main airport Stockholm Arlanda, has its terminal.

T-centralen is also connected to the City Terminal where buses from all airports in the Greater Stockholm Region incl. Bromma and Skavsta have their terminals.
